

Speqta withdraws financial targets in connection with the sale of Rahalaitos

The Board of Directors of Speqta AB (publ) ("Speqta") has today, as a result of the sale of Eone OY ("Rahalaitos"), decided to withdraw the company's financial targets that were communicated in February 2020. Furthermore, the Board has decided to initiate a strategic review.

Due to the sale of Rahalaitos, the Board has come to the conclusion that the financial targets communicated in February 2020 which includes the financial year 2022 are no longer relevant. The Board thus decides to withdraw the financial targets. Furthermore, the Board has decided to initiate a strategic review in order to capitalize on the opportunities that will contribute to continued value creation for Speqta's shareholders. The review has not been given any time limits, but the outcome will communicate as soon as possible.

For more information on the sale of Rahalaitos, see separate press release.
